To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to highly recommend Zayeem Zaki for his exceptional work and dedication during his time at our Neurology Department at University of Toledo. I have had the privilege of working closely with Zayeem for 6 months during his development of an iOS application for our department.

Throughout our time together, Zayeem consistently demonstrated an impressive level of commitment, enthusiasm, and a remarkable ability to learn quickly. His diligence and dedication to his work were evident in every aspect of his project. Not only did he meet all the project's deadlines, but he also consistently delivered high-quality work, even when working under pressure. His determination to excel and contribute to our department's mission was truly commendable.

What stood out most about Zayeem was his willingness to take on challenges and his exceptional problem-solving skills, his positive attitude and professionalism.

Zayeem not only met but exceeded our expectations, and his contribution to our department's iOS application project has been invaluable. I am confident that he has a bright future ahead in the field of medicine and software development. His exceptional qualities, both as a learner and a team player, set him apart from his peers.

I wholeheartedly recommend Zayeem Zaki for any future endeavors or opportunities that he may pursue. He is not only a highly capable individual but also someone who approaches every task with a genuine passion for excellence.

Please feel free to reach out to me at ajaz.sheikh@utoledo.edu if you require any further information or have additional questions regarding Zayeem's performance during his time in our department.

Sincerely,

Ajaz Sheikh, MD.
